"NOW WHAT THEY GOTTA DO, IS FOOL THE PUBLIC BY RUSHING INTO A SENTENCE, AND MAKE IT LOOK AS IF THEY DON'T SEE ANY OF THIS STUFF. PUT IT OFF, LET THE JUDGE SIT UP THERE, THEN KNOCK ALL THAT DOWN (HOLY LAND) AND GO ON INTO THEIR SENTENCE, GIVE ME A SENTENCE (135 YEARS) TO THE PUBLIC, BROADCAST IT ALL OVER THE TELEVISION, MAKE IT LOOK LIKE MALACHI GOT SENTENCED, AND THEN HIDE IT WHEN WE COME AFTER THEM! THE PEOPLE WILL NEVER KNOW WHAT HAPPENED I'LL BE IN A FEDERAL PLACE SOMEWHERE (FLORENCE, COLORADO ADMAX) WHILE WE OVERTURN THIS CASE AND THE PUBLIC WILL NEVER HEAR IT, THEY THINK! BUT BECAUSE WE'RE PUBLIC PEOPLE, WE'RE LITERATE PEOPLE, WE'RE GONNA MAKE SURE EVERYTHING WE DO GOES UP ON THE INTERNET! (www.FreeDrYork.com) SO THEY HAVE SO MANY THINGS, AND SO MANY WAYS THAT THEY'VE VIOLATED THE LAW IN THIS CASE, THAT T H E Y ' V E D O N E I T T O T H E M S E L V E S .

NOW THEY'VE GOT TO HOODWINK YOU, BUT THE SUMMER IS COMING IN, THE SUN IS COMING OUT (SUN CYCLE). OUR PEOPLE ARE GONNA BE OUT! WE'RE GONNA HANG SIGNS, WE'RE GONNA BE MARCHING! WE DON'T VIOLATE THE LAW AND WE'RE NON-VIOLENT, BUT WE WILL BE MARCHING, AND WE WILL HAVE SIGNS, AND WE WILL BRING THEM FROM ACROSS THE STATE SO THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF THEM OUT THERE MARCHING BESIDE US, UNTIL WE GET A REACTION ON ALL THESE VIOLATONS..."

WASHINGTON, D.C. PRESS CONFERENCE

“Mr. Joseph Hibner said more than 4,000 Nuwaubians moved to Macon at Ellis' request several years ago and have become productive members of the community. He said many Nuwaubians are not what the public perceives them to be.

"We're just like everyone else ... We go to work and do our jobs, and we have families to support," Hibner said. "We are just the first to resign. ... There will be others."

Ponder said she didn't know of Ellis requesting any group of people to move to Macon.

"I welcome any kind of growth, but I've never heard of anything like this," Ponder said.

Macon-Bibb County Fire Chief Jimmy Hartley said he didn't realize Ranford Roper Jr. was a Nuwaubian, but the Chief said Roper was a good firefighter.

"I didn't know until he handed in his resignation today," Hartley said.

THE MEANING OF MAAT

The Word MAAT, in Nuwaupic, or Egiptian Language translate to mean "Truth, Justice, Order, Righteousness and Balance".

THE SYMBOL OF MAAT IS THE FEATHER

WHY? Because MAAT is very Light, yet can be very heavy. It is not like "RELIGION", but rather The Way of The Divine Mind/ Right-Thinking, or Correct Reasoning. The Mind is LIGHT, yet is often referred to as being HEAVY. There are 42 Principles of MAAT. It is called "The 42 Negative Confessions" (Papyrus of ANI), "The Egyptian Book Of The Dead").

The 42 Principles are also known as The Declarations to Rekhti-merti-f-ent-Ma'at

Supreme Captain Ahmus Saw Atum Re, Commander of PAA MEDJAYU

By Lieutenant Aha Ua Atum
PAA MEDJAYU Information Officer

Greetings Dear Reader:

Thanks to Brother Alabass, who is the talented Art Designer of PAA MEDJAYU DAKRUN Newsletter Covers. The above photograph of our Beloved Brother, Supreme Captain Ahmus Saw Atum Re, Commander and Chief of PAA MEDJAYU, whose photo appears above is preparing to testify in The Eatonton, Georgia Court. He testified as to the Good Character of our beloved Master Teacher, His Excellency Dr. Malachi K. York.

Brother Alabass stated in his communication to me, “You can also utilize this photo of Supreme Captain Ah Mus Saw Atum Re as he courageously testified as to the good character of Rev. Dr. Malachi K. York in the Eatonton, Georgia Courthouse, which is in Putnam County. In spite of all this, bail for Dr. Malachi K. York was still denied. “

Yes, Dear Reader, Brother Supreme Captain Ahmus Saw Atum Re, Commander & Chief of PAA MEDJAYU is indeed a excellent example of what the Maat Principles truly represent. In Ancient Egipt “MAAT” is symbolized by the Feather and appears in the Capstone of the PAA MEDJAYU Aswud Mir (Black Pyramid) Emblem (see top of adjacent page). This wonderful Emblem was designed by Paa Nazdir: Amun Nub ReAkh Ptah (Djedi), and he chose the designated name “PAA MEDJAYU”, an Ancient Egiptian Nuwaupic Language term which is translated into English as “THE PROTECTORS”. It is also evident that Our Master Teacher’s choice for The Paa Medjayu Organization’s Supreme Captain, and Commander and Chief, is also beyond doubt the right one. Namely, his appointment of Supreme Captain Ahmus Saw Atum Re.

THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE – OR INJUSTICE?

By Bro. Khnum Ka Ankh

The Federal Bureau Of Prisons
Washington, D.C.

US Department Of Justice Report June, 2008

The Federal Bureau of Prisons was established in 1930 to provide more progressive and humane care for Federal inmates, to professionalize the prison service, and to ensure consistent and centralized administration of the 11 Federal prisons in operation at the time. At midyear 2008, there were 4,777 black male inmates per 100,000 black males held in state and federal prisons and local jails, compared to 1,760 Hispanic male inmates per 100,000 Hispanic males and 727 white male inmates per 100,000 white males. Firearm homicide also disproportionately affects African-Americans. Approximately 52 percent of gun homicide victims are African-American, even though they represent less than 13 percent of the total population.

Contacts With Police Involving Force Or The Threat Of Force

- Among the 45.3 million residents age 16 or older who had a contact with police in 2002, about 1.5% (664,500 persons) had a contact in which police used or threatened force against them. The 1.5% in 2002 is greater than the percentage in 1999. In 1999, 1% (0.98%) of persons with contact experienced force or the threat of force.
- Force includes contacts in which the police officer pushed, grabbed, kicked, or hit the resident. Hitting was defined as striking with a hand or an object held in the officer's hand. Included in the definition of force were police dog bites, spray with pepper spray or a chemical, and a firearm pointed in the resident's direction. Also included was the threat to carry out any of these types of force.
- During the traffic stop, police were more likely to carry out some type of search on a male (7.1%) than a female (1.8%), and more likely to carry out some type of search on a black (10.2%) or Hispanic (11.4%) than a white (3.5%).
- About 87% of the 664,500 persons experiencing the threat or use of force felt the police acted improperly. Less than 20% of these persons took formal action, such as filing a complaint or lawsuit with authorities.
- Taken from the June, 2002 National Police- Public Contact Survey (PPCS), a survey designed by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) to document contacts between police and the public that culminated in police using force.
- The third survey – described here under the publication title Contacts between Police and the Public: Findings from the 2002 National Survey (NCJ 207845) – covered interactions between police and the public in 2002.

His Excellency

Dr. Malachi Kobina York

The reason for choosing the Department of Justice 2002 survey because it was on May 8th 2002 that H.E. Dr. Malachi Kobina York was unlawfully forced out of his vehicle and illegally arrested on this date in Milledgeville, Georgia. As indicated in the above survey, unjustifiable force was used against him in this illegal arrest. The local police, along with the Georgia State Police and the Federal authorities, forced him out of his car, roughly placed him on the ground and handcuffed him, although he repeatedly told the authorities that he was a Liberian Diplomat and a Naturalized Liberian citizen with full diplomatic immunity. the illegal arrest and detention of H.E. Dr. Malachi Kobina York on May 8th 2002 is the epitome of racial profiling against Nubians in America.

From The very inception of the United States Penal system, the “cards have been stacked” against Nubians (African-Americans) and people of color living in America. As the old saying goes, the rich get richer and the poor get poorer. A Wall Street Stockbroker embezzles his investors out of billions of dollars and is held for trial under “House arrest” and is allowed to spend his custody time in his plush, upper west-side Manhattan penthouse between the court dates for his trial. Meanwhile his clients; unfortunately, are retirees who invested and lost their life savings; which can not be recuperated, to this corrupt stockbroker. Chairmen of the Board of General Motors Company “Misappropriate” billions of dollars of company profits, and the Federal government gives them a “Bail out” of trillions of dollars and a “Slap on the hand” as punishment, telling them that they must manage their financial resources properly, or they will not receive any more of the common taxpayer’s money. On the other side, entrapment is practiced by the local police in the inner cities of America by placing an unmarked truck filled with boxes of cell phones, computers radios, and other electronic equipment. The back of the truck is left wide open for all to see. The police hide in designated places and wait for unknowing black teenagers or young black men to take these items from the back of the truck. The police then spring out of their hiding places and arrest these young black men for “Theft and illegal entry” into these trucks that they planted for the young men to steal from. All of this is part of the injustice practiced on people of color in America, yet the rich go on committing “White-collar crimes” while being virtually untouched; and in some cases, given government “Bailouts”. It is this dual standard of “Justice” that is the cause of the disproportionate amount of Nubians in the local, state, and federal prisons. This is brought about through racial profiling and other devious means of entrapment that is practiced in the inner cities of America. It is a known fact that people of color do not get the same treatment; in the courthouses or the various Penal institutions, as the other citizens of America for the same crimes committed. The statistics revealed by the United States Department of Justice itself tells the startling facts as to who is really treated unjustly by the Legal and Penal system. This is a compelling statement by the U.S. Department of Justice to actually admit that people of color in the United States are NOT treated equally by the federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies and the Penal systems throughout America. This is the documented fact about real justice in America, and who actually suffers from this lopsided justice system.

June 7, 2009

It remains to be seen, that the appointing of the first African-American Attorney General; Mr. Eric H. Holder Jr., By President Barack Obama, will bring an increased amount of sensitivity to the plight of people of color with the issue of Racial Profiling, and the intense case against H.E. Dr. Malachi Kobina York. On June 18th-19th 2009, a Press Conference will be held in front of the U.S. Department of Justice headquarters in Washington DC. Since the case against Dr. Malachi Kobina York is the crown achievement of racial profiling at its worst, it is only fitting and proper that the true details of this case be presented right at the doorstep of the Department of Justice in order to showcase this unlawful situation to the world by revealing the true events that actually occurred, and not the covered up facts presented in court and completely shut out by the mainstream press. The Federal Bureau of Prisons is controlled by the U.S. Department of Justice; therefore, the torture and inhumane treatment given to H.E. Dr. Malachi Kobina York is now being brought out to the general public. It is hoped that the newly elected Attorney General Eric H. Holder Jr. will review this case with a fair mind and a penchant for equal justice under the laws of the United States that he was sworn in to represent. This case represents to the world just how the United States government really views its African-American citizens, and if "Justice" can actually be administered.

Eric H. Holder Jr. was sworn in as the 82nd Attorney General of the United States on February 3, 2009 by Vice-President Joe Biden. President Barack Obama announced his intention to nominate Mr. Holder on December 1, 2008.

DR.MALACHI K. YORK'S CASE TIMELINE

Time Line of Events in Reference to Dr. Malachi Kobina York's Case

- (1). Jan. 15, 1993 – Nuwaubians buy 476 acres of land at 404 Shady Dale Road in Eatonton , Georgia .
- (2). Nearly 4 Years elapse! (NO LEGAL PROBLEMS ETC.)
- (3). Jan. 1, 1997 - Howard Sills takes office as Sheriff of Putnam County. (PROBLEMS BEGIN for Malachi York and Nuwaubians)
- (4). April 10, 1997 - building inspector J.D. Adams and Sheriff Sills comes onto the Nuwaubian property, where Adams finds a building under construction that has not been issued a permit. A Nuwaubian representative in building and zoning matters is cited for building without a permit. The same day, Adams issues the Nuwaubian representative a permit for a 100-by-50-foot metal storage building with limited electricity.
- (5). March 9, 1998 - After seeing an Atlanta television news report about the Nuwaubians in which the "Rameses Social Club" is featured, Sills and Adams return to 404 Shady Dale Road , because the Nuwaubians had not secured permits for a nightclub. Nine days later, the same Nuwaubian representative is cited by Sills and the state fire marshal for violations regarding the nightclub. Rameses is the 100-by-50-foot metal storage building with numerous additions, including bathrooms, extensive lighting and sound equipment, larger dimensions and an Egyptian-style facade.
- (6). April 20, 1998 - Magistrate Judge Sylvia Huskins finds the Nuwaubian representative guilty of violations of zoning and fire codes and fines him an outrageous $45,750!!! - A total calculated for each day that Rameses was open in violation of the codes. The Georgia Court of Appeals later reduces the fine to $2,500 but upholds the conviction.
- (7). May 5, 1998 – Sheriff Sills sues Rev. Dr. Malachi York and others at the property seeking an injunction preventing use of the Rameses nightclub. Also in May, the Nuwaubians file a zoning request in which they announce plans to build an "Egyptian theme park" comparable to Busch Gardens in Florida . That zoning request is denied in November.

DR.MALACHI K. YORK'S CASE TIMELINE

- (8). Jan. 4, 1999 - Putnam County Attorney Dorothy Adams and law partner and husband Frank Ford file lawsuit 99-CV-1-1, seeking to prevent the Nuwaubians from using the property for anything other than residential or agricultural purposes. Under this lawsuit - which ends three years later (2002) - numerous contempt of court and other pleadings are filed by both sides, and a bitter battle between the county and the Nuwaubians over zoning and building permits begins. York and others are named as defendants in the suit, along with 1 to 200 John Does and 1 to 200 Jane Does, representing unnamed Nuwaubians.
- (9). May 20, 1999 - Superior Court Judge John Lee Parrott issues a permanent injunction ordering Rameses to be padlocked and not used, and giving Sills the authority to enter the property during certain hours to inspect the building. The order allows for the Nuwaubians to restore the building to its original permitted state (a 100-by-50-foot metal storage building with limited electricity) or to seek zoning to allow for the nightclub.
- (10) June 11, 1999 - As the annual Nuwaubian week-long celebration known as "Savior's Day" - marking York 's birthday - approaches, Superior Court Judge Hugh V. Wingfield III orders York to appear in court on a contempt motion filed by the county. York does not appear as ordered June 22. Wingfield also orders several buildings on the property to be padlocked by the sheriff.
- (11) June 25, 1999 - Savior's Day celebration begins. Members are barred from entering buildings at the Nuwaubian village but proclaim, "We love the sunshine." Gov. Roy Barnes meets with Sills in Atlanta to discuss the timing of York 's contempt hearing during Savior's Day.
- (12) June 29, 1999 - With some 500 Nuwaubians packed inside and outside the County Courthouse and another 200 law enforcement officers waiting at nearby locations, York appears in court for the contempt hearing. Wingfield orders the courtroom emptied of all but the principal parties. After two hours behind closed doors, attorneys for both sides emerge claiming agree-
- (13) Sept. 15, 1999 - Civil rights leader Al Sharpton visits the Nuwaubian village to address a crowd of about 150 Nuwaubians. Sharpton accuses county officials of persecuting Nuwaubians because of York 's teachings. York makes a rare appearance before the media and delivers a speech to the crowd.
- (14) Feb. 17, 2000 - The brother of actor Wesley Snipes confirms plans to purchase more than 200 acres adjoining the Nuwaubian village, where he plans to build a "security guard training facility." A Snipes spokeswoman says the actor has no connection to the Nuwaubians. The county later denies permit requests that would have cleared the way for the sale of the land to Rudy Snipes, the actor's (Wesley Snipes) brother.
- (15) June 15, 2000 - The Putnam County Board of Registrars begins purging primarily Nuwaubians who the county claims no longer or never did live in the county from its voter rolls during what will become a series of meetings. The Nuwaubians claim discrimination and file a federal lawsuit, threatening to hold up the July 18 primary election. A three-judge panel sides with the county on its procedure for purging the voter rolls, allowing the election to take place. Nearly 200 people were challenged, and dozens of Nuwaubians were removed from the voter rolls.
- (16) July 18, 2000 - Despite strong opposition from Nuwaubians on Election Day, Sills wins 72 percent of the vote. Throughout the day, Nuwaubians crowd at intersections in Eatonton encouraging voters to elect Sills' opposition.
- (17) April 27, 2001 - Rainbow/PUSH Coalition leader Jesse Jackson visits the Nuwaubian village, pledging solidarity with Nuwaubians in ongoing zoning and building dispute. Macon Mayor Jack Ellis is among those attending Jackson 's speech.
- (18) May 4, 2001 - County Commission in a 3-2 vote fires Dorothy Adams as county attorney, claiming the commission wishes to "move in a different direction," though during her four years as

His Excellency

Dr. Malachi Kobina York

(19) Feb. 8, 2002 - A non-jury trial before Wingfield ends 99-CV-1-1. Wingfield gives the Nuwaubians 90 days to provide all necessary information to the county building and zoning office to obtain any building permits still outstanding. York is dismissed from suit as a quit claim deed is filed, giving ownership of the property to nine individuals who, since June 1999, have been the owners of the property.

(20) March 7, 2002 - The Rameses nightclub a "fellowship hall" on permit applications, the Nuwaubians apply for a building permit that will clear the way for the group to begin using the building for the first time since it was padlocked in 1999. The building does not have to be taken back to its original 100-by-50-foot metal storage building status. Sills appeals the issuance of the permit; the appeal was scheduled to be heard by the Putnam County Planning and Zoning Commission the next month.

DR. MALACHI K. YORK'S CASE TIMELINE

(21) May 2, 2002- Federal Government brings down first indictment of 4 counts of transporting according to 18 U.S.C. §2423 (a), Interstate Transport of Minors for Unlawful Sexual Activity. Counts one and two were from Sullivan County, New York, to Putnam County, GA, in March 1993 and April 1993. Counts Three and Four allege travel between Putnam County, GA and Orlando, FL in the spring of 1996. Co-defendant in this case is Kathy Johnson.

(22) May 8, 2002- The indictment that came down on

May 2 allowed the FBI to receive a warrant for the arrest of Dr. Malachi York and Kathy Johnson. They both lived in Athens, GA at the time. The raid consisted of 250-300 Federal agents from all over the country. The raid took place on 476-acre village not owned by either Dr. York or Kathy Johnson. The FBI agents with the assistance of the Putnam County Sheriff Department raided the land with rifles, machine guns, and other weaponry that reflected that in which they use at the time of war. The only people present on the land that day were around 5 males and 40 women and children. They also raided the home of Dr. York and Kathy Johnson in Athens. They were actually arrested in Baldwin County, GA, which is about 20 miles from Putnam County. The evidence that was taken from the property was mostly computers, personal items of those who lived there, and financial documents pertaining to business records. The State participated in the raid yet they had not indicted Dr. York or Kathy Johnson on any charges.

(23) May 9, 2002- Arraignment hearing for Rev. Malachi Z. York held before Mag. Judge Hicks in Macon, Ga. Original plea of NOT GUILTY was entered on the record.

DR.MALACHI K. YORK'S CASE TIMELINE

- (24) May 10, 2002- Putnam county sheriff Howard R. Sills holds a press conference where Rev. Malachi York's presumption of innocence was dismantled with the aid of the media when Sheriff Sills maliciously labeled Rev. York "... a serial pedophile".
- (25) May 13&14, 2002- Detention hearings held before Mag. Judge Hicks in Macon , Ga. where the court moved to deny bail for Rev. Dr. Malachi York. Reason was both posed a risk to the community and a flight risk. Dr.York has juvenile record but has no Felonies on his record. At this hearing Special Agent Jalane Ward, who interviewed all the alleged victims under oath stated that they had no witnesses that said Mr. York had ever transported or caused to be transported anyone. Also his presumption of innocence was denied him when the Federal Judge said that if Mr. York would be let out these acts would continue to occur as if he was guilty before being proven.
- (26) May 14, 2002- Putnam County Sheriff through a special presentment brought before the grand jury enough evidence, taken from the Federal Government's raid, for them to bring down a 197 -count indictment of child molestation and aggravated child molestation. 5 children were taken from the land during the federal raid and were placed in the custody of DFACS because they were named by others cooperating with the state as having been victims of molestation. All five denied any acts of molestation to ever have taken place. They stayed in DFACS custody for 6 months before being released to their guardian other then their parents that lived on the land. The Judge in the juvenile hearing stated that none of the children had been molested or there was not enough evidence to prove any molestation ever occurred. The grand jury indicted Dr. Malachi York, Kathy Johnson, Khadija Merritt, Chandra Lampkin, and Istiyr Cole on acts of child molestation. There were only 13 known alleged victims. Yet the total counts numbered 197 all which Mr. York was named in.
- (28) October 3, 2002: A new bill of indictment was signed nullifying the first indictment and bringing on a new one with a total of 208 counts of child molestation. At this time Mr. York had still been in Federal custody at the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary during his pre-trial status. He was held in solitary confinement at times and at others housed with 8-10 already convicted felons. He at this time still had not received an arraignment in the state and was being held on the pretences that the Federal case would be tried on November 12, 2002. This indictment added the several counts involving the 5 teenagers that said no sexual abuse had ever occurred between them and the defendants.
- (29) Oct. 25, 2002- Federal case was slated to begin on November 12, 2002 . All this time all the defendants were still incarcerated and held without bond. Dr. Malachi York was being held in Atlanta Federal Penitentiary and Kathy Johnson was being held at Cordele Detention Center . Khadija and Chandra were being held in Putnam County on the state charges. On this date an arraignment hearing was made for the state charges for all defendants. Mr. York was not present at this arraignment hearing it was held for the other co-defendants. Yet while the other co-defendants were in court Mr. York was being moved by the Sheriff of Putnam County, Howard Richard Sills, to Clayton County Sheriff Department bringing him into state custody. Putnam County Sheriff Sills attempts to push Rev. Malachi York down the courthouse steps while he is shackled in leg irons. At this time it was publicly made known that the state would try their case first and the Federal Case would be continued in April 2003. Mr. York was never arraigned on the 1st or 2nd State indictment. He was not given a bond hearing until December, which was only addressed because a motion was filed. Which was denied.

His Excellency

Dr. Malachi Kobina York

- (30) Jan. 23 & 24, 2003- Change of plea hearing was held before Judge Lawson in Macon, Ga. where a new 4 count superseding indictment was returned on Rev Malachi York. & where Rev. Malachi York was coerced by his Attorney Ed Garland to enter into a plea agreement on counts 1, 2, & 3 of the superseding indictment. Preliminary order of the forfeiture signed by Judge Hugh Lawson.

DR.MALACHI K. YORK'S CASE TIMELINE

June 7th, 2009

This was in the best interest of Dr. York to allow Mr. Patrick time to construct the major arguments on appeal. At that time Mr. Patrick consulted with the Clerk at the 11th circuit who assured him that an extension would not be a problem. During that time, Attn Matt Robinson prepared an opening brief with 9 issues based on information he received and reviewed and sent a drafted copy to Mr. Patrick. This was done out of caution in case the extension of time was not granted. After reviewing the draft prepared by Matt Robinson, it became apparent to Mr. Patrick and Dr. York's family that the appeal must be amended/re-written. Mr. Patrick along with Lawyer Benjamin Davis re-drafted the opening brief adding issues which focused on reversal of the conviction and exoneration.

Mr. Patrick also included and felt it necessary to request Oral Arguments to help in Dr. York's reversal of conviction. The extension was granted and the opening appeal brief was set to be filed on November 12th 2004.
